Monday 23rd March

Question time!

Do you think the children in the picture find the journey to school difficult?

What do you think their school is like? How might it be similar/different to yours?

Who are the adults in the picture? What do you think they are carrying?

Where in the world do you think the children are from?

How do you think these children would react to spending a day at your school? How would you react to spending a day at theirs?

Journey to school

Perfect picture!

Can you draw a picture of what you think their school might look like? Think about how it might be different to yours.

Story starter!

6AM: I left the house on my own, wrapped up in my warmest coat (which I wear every day) to make the 3km trip. I met up with other children from my village, and we huddled together beneath the mountain to keep warm, waiting for the last couple of stragglers to arrive. As soon as we were all together, two of the dads put their sledges and emergency packs on their backs, and we set off for school...

Can you write a diary entry for one of these children, describing their journey to school?

Wednesday 25th March

Question time!

What do you think has happened to their nest?

What is the mother possum thinking?

Which of the baby possums has the best seat and why?

Possums have incredible senses. Which of our senses do you think we use the most?

Hanging On

Story starter!

She gritted her teeth and began the climb.

With her vulnerable young perched precariously on her back as she ascended the branch, the extra weight caused her paws to tremble, and her sensitive whiskers to twitch at the strain.

Now that their nest had gone, and storm clouds gathering overhead, she was desperate to find a new location to begin building again. It was their only chance...

Can you continue the story of the possums as they strive to find a new home?

Alternatively, you could do further research on possums and produce a non-chronological report about them?

Friday 27th March

Question time!

What is a dilemma?

What is the dilemma that Superman faces?

If Superman sees someone in danger, but feels exhausted and decides to go home instead, do you think he would feel guilty?

If you are in the playground and you see somebody being bullied, should you do something to help? If you don't do anything to help, have you made a bad decision? Should you feel guilty?

Story starter!

Despite being an incredibly brave, strong, life-saving phenomenon, even Superman had problems. He still loved his job; he still loved saving lives. Today he had already prevented many catastrophes, flying after a jumbo jet full of passengers that had been plummeting towards the earth at tremendous speed. Just before lunch, Superman had swooped in front of a moving truck to save a lost kitten. However, now...Superman needed help. He picked up his phone and began to dial...

Can you continue the story about Superman's dilemma? What could his problem be? Who might he be calling for help?
